SOMETHING NEW IS COMING YOUR WAY

Romy

The company Robart was founded as an R&D center of excellence for AI-powered home robots. Normally our Asian partners start as OEMs and later develop their own brands. Who says, Europeans can't do that?

Look no further than to ROMY, the new robotic vacuum cleaner brand, born and bred in ... yes AUSTRIA. Their line of powerful robot vacuum cleaners will not only save you time and energy, but they will also leave your floors looking spotless.

Snowboarding with MILO

Join Aqipa on a daring night-time adventure as we test our latest innovation - the Milo action communicators! Some of our action loving employees took the slopes of SAlt, Tyrol with their devices in tow, ready to brave the darkness on a thrilling Snowboarding ride.

From the excitement of the ride to the seamless communication via the iMilo devices, this test was a resounding success. Discover how Aqipa combined technology and thrills to create a truly unforgettable experience.
