Gel Blaster

We are currently on tour through Germany and our Bazook Jet Team will be making more than 10 locations of our retail partners. With this campaign we want to bring the fun to the customers, they can try out the devices and compete against each other.

We received very positive feedback from the customers. People are into the shooter and really looking forward to the next dates. The products will also be presented at the Spielwarenmesse in Nürnberg. If you should be there, be sure to visit us.

If you want, you can compete in Instagram for the game, get to connect with us for Promo, Bonuses, and Giveaway Ideas.
